

Look and listen for the answers to the questions below as you watch the filmstrip/cassette presentation, "The 1920's: Prosperity to Panic."

1. Which Amendment gave women the right to vote?
2. Approximately what percentage of American families owned a car by 1930?
3. What dance became very popular during the '20's?
4. What music came to symbolize this era? Name one famous musician who played this music.
5. What was the first radio station? Where was it located?
6. Approximately how many families owned radios by 1929?
7. Who was the most famous "movie star" of the 1920's?
8. What important advance in motion picture (movies) was made during the '20's?
9. What new method of "buying" came into widespread use during the 1920's?
10. What event signaled the end of "the Roaring Twenties?"