

The Great Depression Crossword Review

ACROSS

- 2 One fundamental cause of the Great Depression was _____, which led to surpluses of farm products and manufactured goods.
- 5 the second goal of the New Deal - get business moving again
- 7 Many nations placed high _____ on foreign goods after World War I. This made it difficult to do business.
- 11 one place the unemployed and the homeless could get food

- 13 The New Deal program that gave jobs to young men. They worked to protect and restore our natural resources. (initials)
- 15 the first goal of the New Deal - help those who were most hurt by the Depression
- 17 one place the unemployed and the homeless could get food
- 18 President Roosevelt's _____ Chats calmed the nation's fears and helped restore confidence
- 21 a new type of music that became popular during the 1930's
- 22 the third goal of the New Deal - make changes to prevent another severe depression in the future
- 24 The "get rich quick" attitude of the 1920's led many people to _____ money to invest in the stock market.
- 26 when times are good; unemployment is low; wages, prices, and profits are high; there is a lot of business activity
- 27 When many _____ failed following the stock market crash, millions of Americans found that their live savings had disappeared.
- 28 these provided an escape from the worries of the 1930's

DOWN

- 1 the name given to President Roosevelt's program to end the Great Depression
- 3 Too much buying on "_____" using the installment plan was one of the fundamental causes of the Great Depression.
- 4 Depressions are a regularly occurring phase of the _____.
- 6 when times begin to improve; unemployment begins to fall; wages, prices, begin to rise; business activity picks up
- 8 a system designed to protect workers and their families during times of unemployment and after retirement; it had become part of our way of life
- 9 when business begins to slow down; unemployment begins to rise; wages prices, and profits begin to fall
- 10 New Deal reform that protects people's bank accounts
- 11 having the support of both major political parties
- 12 the biggest problem of the Great Depression
- 14 Because most New Deal programs were commonly referred to by their initials, the New Deal is often referred to as Roosevelt's "_____ Soup."
- 16 Because many banks made _____, they "lost" the money people had deposited in them.
- 18 the President who led the nation out of the Great Depression (initials)
- 19 when times are bad; unemployment is high; wages, prices, and profits are low; little business activity
- 20 the President when the Great Depression began; he mistakenly believed it would be short and end by itself
- 23 The Stock Market "_____" of October 1929 signaled the end of the Roaring Twenties and the beginning of the Great Depression.
- 25 a work-relief program that undertook public building projects, included projects for jobless writers, artists, musicians, and actors, and provided part-time jobs for students (initials)