

American Heroes
Exploring American History
pp. 156-158

Name: _____

Period: _____

1. The territory north of the Ohio River was known as the _____. British soldiers in this territory urged _____ to attack American _____ who lived near the western borders of _____ and _____.
2. _____ led an expedition to drive the _____ from the Northwest Territory.
3. The victories of George Roger Clark reduced the number of _____ and _____ attacks on frontier settlers. They gave the U.S. a right to claim the land bounded by the _____, the _____, and the _____. The lands of the Northwest Territory later became the states of _____, _____, _____, and _____.
4. When the American Revolution began the United States did not have a _____. The government gave permission for _____ to capture British ships.
5. The United States mainly depended on the _____ fleet to fight the British.
6. The most famous American sea captain of the Revolution was _____, who had come to America from _____.
7. Our nation's first flag had 13 _____ and 13 _____. It was called the _____. It was flown for the first time on _____, _____. This date is celebrated as _____ Day.

8. Many _____ played an important part in the Revolution.

9. Women took care of _____, _____, and small _____ while their husbands were fighting.

10. Women collected _____ and _____ objects that could be melted down to make _____ balls and _____ shot.

11. Some women _____ bravely in the war.

- Mary _____ earned the name Molly _____ for bringing water to the troops during the Battle of Monmouth. When her husband was wounded, she took a _____ to take his place in the fighting. George Washington later made her a _____.
- Deborah _____ enlisted as a soldier and disguised herself as a _____. She fought in several battles before she was _____ and a doctor discovered she was a _____.